REMINISCENSES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

On October 28th, 1871, the Town Trustees let to A. W. Burrell, of Oakland, the contract for the construction of the first really permanent and substantial bridge over Redwood Creek in this city. This bridge was to comprise four spans, resting on piles, and was to be 44 feet wide. That it was intended to be substantial is evidenced by a description of the plans. The joists supporting the roadway were to be placed 16 inches apart, the outer two to be 6 by 12 inches and the inner ones 4 by 12 inches. The flooring consisted of three courses, the first being of redwood planking running lengthwise with the stream, while the second was to be of Oregon fir planks two inches in thickness laid diagonally, and on top of this was to be laid a course of Nicholson pavement. For the protection of travelers substantial side railings were erected at the sides.

On the evening of December 30th, 1871, the officers of the Redwood City Lodge, F. and A. M., were installed at a public meeting. Following the installation the members of the lodge were entertained by the new officers at a banquet at the American House. Following were the officers installed: S. M. Cook, worshipful master; D. G. Leary, senior warden; H. N. Bishop, junior warden; P. P. Chamberlain, secretary; H. N. Nutting, treasurer; T. W. Lathrop, senior deacon; C. A. Kirkpatrick, junior deacon; H. Bornstein and H. Hildebrand, stewards; Amos Dennis, tyler.

Shortlh after 9 o'clock on the morning of April 1st, 1872, the handsome home of Mrs. Horace Hawes, then considered one of the finest residence structures in this vicinity, was entirely destroyed by fire. Just what was the cause of the fire was never known, as no one was in the house at the time. The flames were first discovered by a Mr. Danbury, one of the tenants residing upon the estate, whose home was at some distance from the mansion. He, in company with W. F. Hughes the superintendent of the Hawes estate, rushed to the scene of the fire and gave the alarm as quickly as possible. At the same time an alarm wns sounded in town, but many people were inclined to consider the cry of fire as one of the pranks of the April Fool humorist and for a time paid no attention to them. For this reason assistance was rather tardy in arriving and but little could be done in the way of attempting to save the valuable furniture, the greater part of which was lost. The building was valued at $15,000 and the loss on the furniture was estimated at $3,000, with an insurance of less than half. Owing to a liberal notion on the part of the caretaker, who had loaned the piano for use at a picnic on the previous Saturday, and the usual carelesness of people in returning borrowed property, the instrument escaped the general destruction. At the time of the fire Mrs. Hawes was in San Francisco, where she had made her home much of the time since the death of Mr. Hawes.

In the issue of the Gazette of April 30th of that year appears this news item: "Married, at Redwood City, April 11th, 1872, by Rev. H. E. Jewett, Geo. H. Rice, of Woodside, to Mary Louisa Teague, of this place."

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

There are some men in this world whose souls are so small that they can never overlook the little differences of life. Even beside the b.er they could not sink their little personal animosities.

The spirit of cofnidence and push which marked the speeches at the Board of Trade Banquet last Tuesday evening augurs well for the future of the city. That we have the natural facilities no one can question. All that is required is a united determination to take advantage of the opportunities offered by ous situation. Each must be ready to contribute his share, even at the expense of some slight personal inconvenience, remembering that what is the public gain must of necessity result in some measure of private profit.

A Splendid Public Record.

The announcement of the positive determination of County Recorder J. F. Johnston to retire permanently from public service at the end of his present official term, made through the columns of the Times-Gazette of last week, came as both a surprise and a disappointment to his host of friends and admirers throughout the county. Nor was this feeling of disappointment confined to members of the Republican Party, but from expressions of regret heard from many quarters was equally participated in by many members of the party of opposite political faith, who had hoped that for at least one more term the people of San Mateo County were to be given the benefit of the faithful service which he had rendered for so many years.

No other evidence of appreciation of the faithful service of Mr. Johnston in his public duties can be so strong as that exhibited by his long continuance in the same position. For the long period of twenty-six years the people of the county have continued him in practically the same position, signifying by this strong and almost unprecidented endorsement their approval of his course as a public official.

While during this long time there have been several changes in the political complexion of the affairs of the county, and there have been times when the Republican Party, to which Mr. Johnston has always held positive adherence, has failed to maintain its ascendency, the people without regard to party lines have insisted upon his retention. This is certainly a record of which any man may well feel proud. No stronger evidence of public esteem could possibly be extended.

In retiring to private life and to the rest he has so well earned, Mr. Johnston certainly has reason to appreciate this strong evidence of public endorsement. Equally the people of San Mateo County have occasion to congratulate themselves upon this splendid record of one of its sons, for Mr. Johnston is a native son of the county. Born in Halfmoon Bay 54 years ago, his entire life has been spent in San Mateo County, where he has achieved a most enviable record for personal integrity and public probity. At no time during his long public service has there been the slightest reason to question either the integrity of his conduct or the method of the administration of the important office he has occupied.

Pescadero Correspondence.

A. J. Treat, attorney for L. Coburn, spent a week fishing in and around Pescadero.

Dr. A. E. Banks has returned from San Francisco.

Miss Mayme Grace and cousin of San Francisco are the guests of Mrs. Julia Knapp.

The Portuguese celebration will begin next Saturday, May 14th, and a nice time is expected.

Mrs. Ed Dickerman is slowly improving under the care of Dr. Thompson. Mrs. Dickerman has been a very sick woman and a patient sufferer for over two months.

Dr. D. E. Blackburn and wife have moved into their cottage at the Hotel. It seems good to see them among us again.

Will Present Pinafore.

We wish to again call your attention to the fact that the Redwood City Choral Society is to produce the comic opera H. M. S. "Pinafore," on Friday next, May 20th, at the Alhambra.

While this is the first production of this kind the Society has attempted, there is no doubt as to their success. As shown by their former efforts, they not only have the vocal talent, but the training as well. Their selection of an opera could not have been better, as this is one of the best known and most popular of the Gilbert and Sullivan Comic operas. The scene takes place on the quarter deck of the English war vessel "Pinafore." The plot centers about the love of Ralph, a common sailor for Josephene, his Captain's daughter. There are besides several other smaller plots. The following is the cast of characters: Josephine, Miss Gertrude Beeger; Mrs. Cripps, (Little Buttercup) Mrs. N. C. Cummings; Hebe, cousin to the Admiral, Mrs. E. Ensor; Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B. (Admiral), Mr. B. C. Myers; Captain Corcoran, Mr. C. G. Landsche t; Sargent of Marines, N. C. Cummings; Dick Deadeye, Ralph Dodge; Boatswain, Eugene McAuliffe; Boatswain'sMate, Mr. A. Martins; and last but not lea t Ralph Rackstraw, the hero of the plot, by Mr. Chas. Foley. Mr. Foley, who is well known in San Francisco, being the leading tenor of the California Operatic Society, has offered to give up all the time need d to make the opera a success and in return asks only that we pay his actual expenses.

During the intermission, Miss Edna Zimmerman, a contralto of marked ability, who has been studying for sometime in Sacramento, has consented to sing for us.

In presenting this opera no time or expense is being spared to make it first class in every detail In return we ask that all who can will be out to show their appreciation of our efforts..

Eight Fifteen is the hour set so please be in your seats by that time, as we cannot wait for you.

Dr. Ross City Health Officer.

Dr. J. L. Ross has been appointed health officer for Redwood City by the board of health consisting of Dr. Taylor president and Dr. Taggart secretary. Dr. Ross will pay his attention to impure milk and says that Redwood City will soon be second to none in point of health.

An Artistic Piece of Work.

One of the most perfect and beautiful specimens of the taxadermists' art is that of a male teal duck owned by Geo. Genochio and now on exhibition at the Arbor Bar in this city. It is the handiwork of Chase Littlejohn, whose successful efforts in that particular line have been conceded by the authorities at the Smithsonian Institute at Washington as second to none in the United States The little web-foot hangs poised in the air, with wings outspread and feet extended as though about to alight in the water, and has been pronounced by expert duck hunters who have viewed it, as an exemplification of nature as near as it is possible for the taxadermist to produce.

MERCHANTS READY TO BOOST REDWOOD

Board of Trade Holds Annual Banquet and Prepares for Betterment Campaign.

The annual banquet of the Redwood City Merchants Board of Trade at the Bernasque Cafe last Tuesday evening, proved a veritable get-to gether meeting. Not only was there a large attendance of members of the Board of Trade, but many other prominent citizens and local officials, as well as several visitors of note, were in attendance at the pleas ant gathering, at which a thorough unanimity of spirit prevailed—a spir it of enterprise and progress and of confidence in the immediate future progress and development of Redwood City and its environs. The hour set for the opening of the banquet was 9 o'clock, and when at that hour A. D. Walsh, who presided over the festivities, requested the guests to be seated, more than 100 were present ready to do full justice to the tempting viands prepared by mine host Victor Bernasque. Prominent among the guests was Supervisor Robert J. Loughrey, of San Francisco, who enjoys modestly the distinction of having been elected by the largest number of votes cast for any one candidate at the recent election atthe Bay City. Mr. Loughrey is now serving San Francisco for the second time as a member of its Board of Supervisors, and as a further evidence of his popular ity is strongly mentioned as the Democratic candidate for Congressman from the Fifth District.

Fully two hours were spent in the enjoyment of the elaborate menu which had been provided and in the interchange of pleasant personal greetings and pleasant repartee. All were feeling at the best, and mirth and good cheer were the rule for the evening, lending zest and added appetite. With the service of coffee and cigars, toastmaster Walsh again took charge of the assemblage, and a considerable time was devoted to an interchange of ideas. Although the hour was growing late, several interesting and enthusiastic speeches were made, the universal theme of which were confidence in the arrival of a season of prosperity and development and a spirit of united action for the future.

Before introducing the first speak er, Mr. Walsh took occasion to voice his appreciation of the honor of having been called upon to preside for thee fourth consecutive year at the banquet of the annual gathering of the business men of the city, and to extend his congratulations at the large gathering which strongly evinced the spirit of unity and progress which prevailed. During his long connection with the business affairs of the city, he had always taken especial interest in the Board of Trade and he was pleased at the evidences of its prosperous condition. As the first speaker of the evening, Mr. Walsh presented D. R. Stafford, the new president of the Board.

Mr. Stafford spoke at some length, first extending his thanks for the evidences of good will and the honors of the position which had been tendered him. He felt that Redwood at this time was a happy city, likened unto a happy family. Happy in their assocations with eachother .Happy in the bright prospects for the future. He believed that the time had now arrived for action, and urged that the Board of Trade should now formulate definite and efficient plans for concerted action. He likened past conditions to the fabled sleep of Rip Van Winkle, with the difference that while he could not help the long period of somnolence we could. That we have been asleep and thus failed to take advantage of opportunities presented was largely our own fault. It is now time to wake up. Mr. Stafford especially voiced his approval of the efforts and work of the city officials, who in the past two years have done much for the betterment of local affairs, and urged a general united support of those efforts. Mr. Stafford closed with some humorous references to the ever present troubles of the individual merchants in their dealings with over exacting customers, and again urged the development of the spirit of unison for public development, in which he urged the support of every citizen of the city.

The next speaker introduced was Mayor George A. Merrill, who Mr. Walsh suggested was especially qualified to speak upon the affairs of the city government over which he so acceptably presided. While Mr. Merrill introduced a fund of good humor and kept his hearers in lively spirits, he presented much ground for encouragement and pointedly referred to several evidences of impending business prosperity and opportunities for business growth. Un like some of our neighboring towns of the Peninsula, we have been free from the spirit of strife and division and were admirably equipped for united action. While the Tuustees had labored in the past asiduously for the improvement of the city, the progress had not been as rapid as had been hoped for. This however Mr. Merrill explained was due to delays caused by the necessity of accurate preparation. These troubles had now been surmounted, and he predicted that in the future public improvements would not be allowed to lag. As rapidly as possible the street improvements, one of the crying necessities, would be pushed to completion. Not alone would Redwood City have a new and creditable municipal building, but the other improvements which the people by their votes had authorized would be pushed to completion within the present year. Next Mayor Merrill took up the question of industrial improvement, declaring his positive conviction that Redwood City was about to enter upon a season of unprecedented prosperity and business improvement, especially in the way of the establishment of manufacturing enterprises, which he declared were a certainty in the very near future. As proof of this he declared that at the instigation of investors he had secured an expert examination of the water front and harbor facilities of this city, which had been declared to be surpassed by no location bordering on San Francisco Bay. Based upon this expert recommendation, the laying of the spur track to connect the marsh lands, which is already under construction, was determined. This he declared from official information will be pushed to completion, and this work will be followed by the incorporation of a company to exploit the factory sites. Thus he declared will be presented the opportunity for which the city has long been waiting. Already under the spur of the city officials and in appreciation of the growing importance of the business of the city, the Southern Pacific is making extensive improvements both for the improvement of its facilities and for the protection of the public from danger of accident.

At the request of toastmaster Walsh, Supervisor Loughery of San Francisco, addressed the assemblage for a short time, expaciating upon what he termed the unrivaled climatic advantages of this city, and closing with an entertaining illustration which provoked rounds of applause.

The last regular speaker of the evening was George W. Lovie, who told of the work of the committee in charger of the comingg Fourth of July celebration and urged united action in its support. He informed his hearers that assurances had already been received of the hearty support of all sections of the county, from which it was now certain that on the Fourth Redwood City would witness the gathering of the largest crowd which had everr assembled within its limits.

During the intermissions between the toasts, the gathering was favored with vocal selections by a quartet, composed of Messrs. Landscheit, Carrington, Martens and McAuliffe. After singing "Auld Lang Sine,"the gathering dispersed for their homes, all voicing the pleasure of the evening. As the guests departed, host Victor Bernasque was showered with congratulations for the splendid repast served and for the splendid manner in which the service had been conducted.

HAYES FINE RECORD

Senator McGowan Pays Tribute to Work of Our Congressman.

Former Senator Frank McGowan, a prominent Attorney of San Francisco, and a candidate for the Republican nomination of State Attorney General, at the August primary, was in Redwood City on Monday attending to legal business. He did not discuss his own candidacy, although his petition is being signed by local voters, but he made a few remarks about Congressman Hayes which are of special interest to the people of this County

"I have resided in the Fifth Congressional District for fourteen years,' said Mr. McGowan, "and have canvassed it several times for Mr.Hayes. I think, not only is the district vitally interested in his return to Congress, but that the interests of the whole state are equally concerned. As a citizen I should consider his retirement a misfortune to the district and a calamity to the state.

"The people of California are practically unanimous for Asiatic exclusion, and for years have been demanding effective legislation on that subject from Congress. As a state policy we are therefore pledged to keep these undesirable people from making out of our beautiful country an Asiatic Colony. This is no temporary agitation, and Eastern people generally believe that our opinion that Asiatic immigration is a serious menace to the coast is genuine and sincere.

"Mr. Hayes is the most conspicuous advocate of this policy in the country and as such he has brought to the fifth district peculiar distinction. He is conservative in presenting the arguments but is a master of the subject in its economic and historical details. I state but the fact when I say that he has made a favorable impression not only on Congress but on the Eastern public. Throughout the East he is the most prominent figure on this coast with respect to this vital question. I believe that the maintainance of our crusade or Asiatic exclusion is essential to the preservation of American civilization on this coast, and if Mr. Hayes should be retired from Congress, while he is willing to serve the fifth district, a deadly blow would be delivered to the State from which for years it could not recover No better evidence of our sincerity on this subject could be given than the re-election of Mr Hayes by an increased majority.

"But there are other reasons why Mr. Hayes should be re-elected. His long sevcice and conspicuous ability have given him an important position in the House of Representatives and to replace him with a new man would practically wipe the fifth district off the map, Our people would certainly be silly to disregard their own interests in such a manner. We care nothing about Speaked Cannon and his committee on rules out here. If Mr. Hayes is an 'insurgent' that merely betokens that he is a man of spirit and independence. What our district wants in Congress is han able man like Mr. Hayes to look after our interests and, having got him we should keep him there as long as he is willing to stay."

Redwood Gets Another Scalp.

The San Francisco Examiner last Saturday, had the following to say: "The Gen. Lawton s journey to Redwood City tomorrow to play the home team there. Redwood City has one of the fastest out-of-town teams in the state this season and an interesting game is sure to result when these two teams clash."

Well, the Lawtons came and went with the rest of them. They were shut out, 5 to 0. They too, l ke the rest took their defeat like true sports. The local team as well as any of the visiting teams this year, have acted very manly and sportsmanlike. If the grand stand would take an example from those who in the heat of the game may feel their temper rise at times, they would say less hurting things to the visiting team. There is no occasion for throwing insults at anyone because he fights to win the game.

The new pitcher walked many a man to first, all of them nursing a sore spot, some in the back and some in the neck oind one even in the solar plexus. He had such wonderful curves that he pitched himself completely out of the game.

Fox played short stop, and in that position clearly showed he was an all-round ball player of the first order. He will be pitcher again next Sunday.

IS OUT FOR RECODER

James E. Fitzgerald Announces His Desire for Nomination.

James E. Fitzgerald, who has announced his candidacy for the office of County Recorder on the Republican ticket is one of Menlo Park's most sterling and upright young men, and if nominated and elected there is not the least doubt that the citizens of San Mateo County will be getting one of the most able young men in the County to handle the affairs of this important office.

Mr. Fitzgerald spent his boyhood days in the town of Millbrae where his father owned and conducted the noted land-mark "The Millbrae Hotel." He later movedv to Menlo Park where his father again launched into the hotel business and erected the picturesque "Oak Grove Villa," and where his son received his education in the local schools, upon the completion of which he received a thorough business course in one of the San Francisco Business Colleges. Having finished this course he accepted a position with the Palo Alto Hardware Company, where after two years of energetic labor and from the business ability shown in the interest of the firm, he was taken in as one of the stockholders.

Having a desire for public life, young Fitzgerald, resigned his position to accept an other position as Journal Clerk of the State Senate. It was here that the representatives from the different points of the State realized his ability as an official, and, upon the adjournment of the session, he was tendered an important position with the State Harbor Commissioners.

Here, he again through his courteous and business like treatment of the Grain Brokers of San Francisco, the careful way in which he conducted the affairs under his charge, was selected by the Harbor Commissioners to fill an important position in the Secretary's Office. In this position, which he has now filled for several months Fitzgerald displays the highest efficiency, and has been favorably commended by his superiors.

Besides Mr. Fitzgerald's record in public life,, he has been an ardent worker as a Native Son of theGolden West, and has done much toward aiding the great historic work of saving the early land-marks and Missions of California. He and five other of the leading Native Sons of the State, represented the Orred at the National Forestry Convention held in Sacramento, at which meeting with other representatives, he presented a number of recommendations which have lately been adopted by the Federal Government in preservinng the world famous Yosemite Valley.

He has also been elected for the past three years on the Governing Board of officers of the Native Sons, and last year served as the Grand Marshal, handling the monster three day celebration of Admission day at San Jose. He also acted as Grand Marshal for the Native Sons and Daughters in the Portola Celebration of 1909.

Along with his affiliation with the Native Sons, Mr. Fitzgerald is a member of San Mateo Lodge, Benevolent Order of Elks, and San Mateo Council, Knights of Columbus, in both of which organizations, he is an enthusiastic member

The San Carlos Park Syndicate, Mr. Follis president, has purchased all the unsold lots owned by the San Carlos Land Co. All the streets will be graded and macadamized and the sum of $100,000 spent this summer in the work. # MANY ARE CANDIDATES

Aspirants for Places on Republican Ticket are Not Bashful.

Although the primary election in the county will not take place until August 16 th politics are beginning to warm up and many candidates are mentioned for the various offices.

It is pretty generally conced d that Charles F. Curry will carry the county for governor by a big vote. He has a strong personal following in the Santa Clara Valley and in the counties around the bay. His many friends believe he will be the next chief executive of California.

There will be quite a scramble for assmblyman in the county. Henry Ward Brown is a candidate and if elected he may be the next speaker for he has a big following through out the state owing to his former three terms as assemblyman and his independence as a legislator. At the Republican primaries he will be pitted against Thomas Hickey, one of the most popular men in the northern part of the county. The Democratic aspirant is ex-supervisor Joseph Debenedetti, of Halfmoon Bay. He is the strongest candidate in the ranks of the bourbons. The contest promises to be a red-hot go as you please affair.

James T. O'Keefe is a candidate for the Republican nomination for District Attorney. He is one of the wheel horses of the party in the county having on all occasions taken the stump for the various candidates. He thinks it about time that his services be recognized. J. J. Bullock, the incumbent, will also seek a renomination. He relies upon his record to land him a winner. Mr. Green of San Mateo will also try for the Republican nomination. He is a young man recently admitted to practice. He is spoken of as a clever chap. Archer Kincaid of Redwood City will be the Democartic nominee.

It looks now as if there will be a three cornered contest for sheriff. Robert Chatham is to be the Republican nominee. He will have no opposition at the primaries. The Democratic nominee is likely to be Supervisor P. H. McEvoy of Menlo Park, while ex-sheriff J. H. Mansfield will run independent.

There will be a lively scrimmage for recorder. H. O. Heiner is making a strong canvass for the place. He is a capable fellow and would make a good recorder. James E. Fitzgerald of Menlo Park will measure swords with Heiner for the office He is a popular native son who will make a strenuous campaign.

C. L. McCracken will seek a renomination for tax collector. He has without doubt made the best tax collector the county has ever had and upon this record he hopes to be re-elected. Those who have had business with his office speak in glowing terms of his courtesy, efficiency and accuracy in handling the affairs of the office. He is very popular with the taxpayers. Judge McSweeney, justice of the peace of South San Francisco, will be his opponent at the Republican primaries. He is a very popular young man with a host of friends in the first township. His record is good. Thus far no Democrat is mentioned for the place.

Roy W. Cloud appears to have no opposition for superintendent of schools, neither has C. D. Hayward for assessor. Henry Underhill seems to have it all his own way for auditor. No one is named for the place. Joseph H. Nash appears to have no opposition for clerk in either the Republican or Democratic ranks.

H. G. Plymire is another lucky individual who will have no opposition for coroner and public administrator. The people seem to be satisfied with his administration.

Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain, the old reliable, will have no one to oppose him at the Republican primaries and it looks now as if the opposing party will pit no one against him. He will have everything his own way.

James V. Neuman, the incumbent and F. W. Waggoner, City Engineer of Burlingame, will mix up at the primaries for the Republican nomination for Surveyor. No name is yet mentioned in the Democartic ranks for the place.

In the second township it is likely that Maurice Powers will be the Republican nominee for supervisor J. H. Coleman having signified his intention of retiring at the end of his term. This is to be regretted for he has done more for the roads of that township than any other supervisor that has ever held the office. W. H. Brown will try for the Democratic nomination.

The fifth township will also elect a supervisor this year. D. E. Blackburn, the incumbent will seek a renomination. He certainly has made good and his township is going to give him the Republican nomination. Mr. Perry will also seek the Republican nomination. TheDemocratic nominee will be either Herman Frey or John McCormick.

The office of Justice of the Peace seems to be the bone of contention in the third township. A. J. Carleton of Menlo Park and Mr. Lampkin will try conclusions at the Republican primaries while Judge James Hannon, the incumbent, and George Meekins of Menlo Park will fight it out at the Democartic prrimaries.

Charles Lorton, the jailer, James Cronk, the incumbent, and John Felix of Woodside will scramble for the Republican nomination for constable of the third township. No one has yet had the teremity to seek the Democratic nomination.

The campaign promises to be the liveliest ever had in the county.

Mrs. Ora Ramsey Says Her Minister Husband Loves Liquor Best.

Mrs. Ora Ramsay, who will be remembered during her girlhood in this city as Miss Ora Covert, has filed a complaint in the Superior Court asking a divorce from her husband, the Rev. Hugh Ramsay and charging him with cruelty and intemperance. The couple were married in this city in October, 1902, and three children have been born of the union. Mrs. Ramsay is living with her mother at Burlingame and her husband resides in Oakland. Ramsay has filed a demurrer to his wife's complaint in which he makes a general denial of her charges He has asked to have the case transferred to Alameda county for trial and it is understood will make no attempt to oppose his wife's suit.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Redwood City People.

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one special kidney medicine that cures permanently and there is plenty of proof right here in Redwood City.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now states that the cure was lasting.

Fred Haussler, 101 Stambaugh street, Redwood City, Cal., says: "My kidneys were badly disordered and the secretions from these organs were unnatural. Knowing that difficulties of this kind often resulted seriously if allowed to go unchecked, I was anxious to get relief. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I got a box at P. A. Ryan's drug store and their use completely removed the symptoms of my trouble. In July 1907, I publicly testified in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills and at this time I gladly confirm that statement. During the past two years, I have been free from kidney complaint. This fact justifies my speaking more highly than ever of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Assessor's Instructions

To Owners of Real Estate and Personal Property

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where the property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

If you hold mortgages against others send in a mortgage statement showing amount due on such mortgage on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns his books over to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July The Board then sets as a Board of Equalization during the month of July.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.
